

2006-2008: Business Training and Consulting in frame of the “Assisted Voluntary Return (AVR) and Reintegration” project;

2006-2008: ABCO implemented the Business Training and Consulting programs for the beneficiary participants of the “Assisted Voluntary Return (AVR) and Reintegration” project carried out in Georgia by International Organization for Migration (IOM) and financed by the Home Office of the UK and the European Refugee Fund. The project aimed at helping migrants from Georgia residing in Great Britain and seeking asylum there to return and reintegrate successfully into Georgia through identifying income generating activities (by employment and starting small – scale businesses) to become financially independent and settle successfully.

Within the above training programs, during the period of October 2006 - June 2008, “ABCO-Georgia” delivered business training and consulting services to total number of 54 participants and provided qualified assistance to elaboration of total of 40 business plans by the program beneficiaries;
